Monthly lecture series

ANTHROPOSOPHIC PSYCHOLOGY

David Taulbee Anderson

This series of 10 lectures explores and elaborates on Rudolf Steiner's lecture series Anthroposophy, Psychosophy, and Pneumatosophy. Anthroposophy deals with the relation of the soul to the body and senses. Psychosophy studies the soul itself, in its own realm. Pneumatosophy is the study of the soul's relation to the Spirit.

Jan. 17 (#5): “The Senses, Feeling, and Aesthetic Judging.” Desire is the basis of love and hate. Love and hate reach out beyond our soul to what is outside and draw in what approaches us and enters as desire. Judging radiates out and ends towards decision while desiring approaches inwards and ends in satisfaction. The special health giving quality of aesthetic judgments. Pure free will has no object of desire.

Next dates: Feb 14, Mar 14, Apr 18, May 16, June 13. Come to any lecture, you do not have to attend the entire series!

DAVID TAULBEE ANDERSON: HAS taught drawing & painting around the world. He has an MA in Art and certificates from Emerson College (Waldorf education), and the Wagner School at the Goetheanum (teaching painting).
